Implementation (M.S. 63-018)

All of the amended provisions described in this letter shall be implemented prospectively for all Food Stamp households effective April 1, 1993.

Beginning Months (M.S. 63-102 b.(1))

This provision is being amended to clarify that in a retrospective budgeting system the month following a month of suspension shall not be considered a beginning month.

Income Exclusions (M.S. 63-502.2(i) and 63-504.311(e)(1))

M.S. 63-502.2(i) is being amended to clarify that the earned income of children who are students at least half time and have not attained their 18th birthday by the beginning of the budget month shall have that income excluded.

M.S. 63-504.311(e)(1) is being amended to clarify that when the CWD is calculating the household's benefit level, the earned income of a student will be used only if the student is at least eighteen years old at the beginning of the budget month.

This provision is being amended to clarify that when the CWD is anticipating/estimating expenses for a stable expense for nonmonthly reporting households or in the beginning months of a retrospectively budgeted household, a deduction shall be allowed for the month the expense is intended to cover.
